

JENNY BROSINSKI

born in Celle (DE) based in Berlin (DE)

2012 Meisterschüler postgraduate degree Weißensee Academy of Art Berlin, Germany

Appearing in an easily and sloppy aesthetic, Jenny Brosinski regularly uses raw canvases to create large mixed media paintings. Brosinski is best known for her compositions of canvases with typical lightness and simplicity – while she deconstructs her canvas into new creations, gathering classic oil colours with dirt, dust, household detergent or machine laundry. Her process orientated approach let us participate in her studio experience and she uses her fascination for materials, incompleteness and failure to create paintings which are often compared to minimalism, calligraphic aesthetics, Écriture automatique or children's mark-making.
